GEORGE GURGANUS
PROFESSOR OF SPEECH AND MISSIONS

June 7, 1966

Dear John Allen:

As you very likely know, a meeting was held at the last ACC Lectures in which the prospects of developing a new missions periodical for our brotherhood was discussed. At that time a committee was appointed to recommend a purpose, format, staff, publisher, etc., for such a periodical. It seemed the consensus that this type of publication was needed.

Walter Burch was appointed chairman of a committee to study and research the project and come up with some recommendations in the areas suggested. In fulfilling his assignment he sent out letters asking for suggestions and recommendations from various men in the brotherhood. According to his statement, many thoughtful and constructive recommendations have been received.

At the ACC meeting it was decided that another get-together would be planned for June 25, 1966, on the campus of Harding College Graduate School of Religion. Since many of the interested persons will be attending the Seminar in Missions in Searcy it was felt that the Memphis location for the meeting would be most ideal. This assembly will take place at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, June 25, and will continue not later than 3:00 p.m. If at all possible you are urged to be present and contribute your part toward this worthy project. Enclosed you will find a post card upon which you can indicate your intentions. We need to plan for you. Rooms will be available either Friday night or Saturday night here on the campus of the Graduate School in the men's dormitory. The cost for one night will be $2.50. If you wish you may, of course, choose to stay in a Memphis hotel or motel. Please let us know how we can serve you. Your help is needed in this project.

In His service,

George Gurganus
